Secret Project: Gou-dere Bishoujo Nagihara Sora chapter 08

Production Duration: July 20, 2011 - July 30, 2011

History: A brain child of 2 rogue AFS staffers in a bid to produce the latest Gou-dere chapter in record time, but due to previous incidents concerning this project, our resident translator strongly suggested that we don't put the release in our group site. Thus it was given to a third party group and was released solely in MangaFox. After sitting in the AFS archives for years gathering dust, I figured it's time to give proper credits to the individuals who actually did the actual work. The third party release was watermarked and overly cleaned, so some minor modifications were done to this one. This is Gou-dere chapter 08 AFS version in its full unadulterated glory.

Revisions: Revised translation & image noise reduction rework

Status:

COMMENTS:

Proper credits to the proper people! AF's has finally released their version of Gou-dere chapter 08. Year 2018 was a dark period in our group's history in scardling and many groups were clamoring for power and fame. Though our little group doesn't have either, we make up for perseverance and all that shiz. This version of Gou-dere 8 uses the original material used by the actual people who worked on it (minus the third party's blatinz). We'll try to chuck out the remaining Gou-dere chapters for as long we can for you guys. Let's just hope this series won't end in tragedy like so many other works of 2018. Home, Rangaia, Let's meet again on the next release!
